Foreword

Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid. Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

DEDICATION

We, the Siespean Staff, dedicate this 1951 edition of the Siespean to you, the student. We sincerely hope that these pages will help you in the years to come to recall pleasant memories of Union College. Through the chain of memory we shall never be separated from our Alma Mater. If this book serves you as a link in that chain, our efforts have not been in vain.

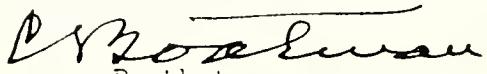

President's Message

This 1950-51 issue of the Stespean appears in the critical period of the "National Emergency." Great tension and anxiety prevail everywhere. Union College assumes an added role of service in such times and will seek to maintain, as ever, a full program of courses for all who register. National emergency really means college urgency for all American youth who are prepared to enroll in college. The nation must maintain an abundant supply of educated men and women for strategic posts in this emergency. This is no time for young Americans to loaf or to neglect opportunity to make ready in haste for service in our world crisis. In fact educated citizens are more in demand than ever in our history and thus college education has become a patriotic duty.

Each year the students, alumni, and friends of Union College welcome with enthusiasm the appearance of the new Stespean. This year's issue is a worthy successor to all the talented productions that have preceded, and I am sure all the readers will join me in hearty congratulations to this year's staff.

Dean of the College

Dean's Message

Periods overflowing with adversity are likewise filled with opportunity. The problems of our Colonial days brought forth pioneers and leaders still cherished because of their devotion and valiant service. Today the needs of our country and of our world are still great. Will you be listed among those who rise to meet the challenge of this hour?

Sincerely,
H. B. Smith, Dean

Business Manager's Message

The 1951 issue of the Stespean is a splendid example of the best co-operative effort of the Staff and Student Body of Union College, and represents many hours of concentrated effort to produce a good publication.

The Administration is proud of you, and grateful for an excellent recording of another year's progress at Union.

Best wishes, always
Clifton Wilson, Business Manager

THE STESPEAN

Well, here I am! Your 1951 STESPEAN. For some I will be the last STESPEAN they will receive and for others I will be their first college annual. Whichever I am, I hope you enjoy me and some day in the future when you leaf through my pages and I bring back one memory, recall one pleasant moment, or even bring a sigh, I will know that those whose efforts made me what I am will not have been in vain.

I want to thank all the members of the staff who gave so freely of their time, missed meals, lost sleep, skipped classes, for all the work they did on me. Also I want to thank my sponsor who has answered my questions and helped in so many ways to make me a success.

My editor wishes me to thank the faculty for electing him to such an honor and he sincerely hopes that I will meet their high approval.

DAN'L BOONE Festival

Many long years ago, the forefathers of the Cherokees departed from this land to a home beyond the great mountains. They made a treaty with the people of Kentucky. They honored and kept that treaty, while in Kentucky, the forefathers of the Cherokees made baskets from the cane that grew along the banks of the Cumberland.

Today, the sons of the Cherokees come in friendship to visit their friends in Kentucky. Kentucky bids them welcome and hopes that their visits in the future may outnumber the hairs of their heads.

SADIE HAWKINS' DAY AT Union

Mammy Yokum, Little Abner, Daisy Mae, Marryin' Sam—all these and many more will be found on Union College Campus on that day of days—Sadie Hawkin's Day. The annual race and party at Jack's Blue Room is sponsored each year by the Sophomore Class and the best of all—at least for the boys—is that it is the girl who does the chasing and pays for the evenings entertainment.

SCHOOL Life

In November, Open House was held in Stevenson Hall, Barracks and Tye House. This was a golden opportunity for the girls to see what kind of housekeepers the boys are. After inspecting the men's rooms, the student body was royally entertained by a program given by some of the fellows. The evening was ended with refreshments served to all.

Men in the hall! Yes, there were many men in the hall when Pfeiffer Hall girls opened their doors to welcome guests at their annual open house on February 16th, 1951. Bringing the events of the evening to a crescendo was the crowning of the "Queen of Hearts," Ola Sanchez, accompanied by her king, Don Comer. Following the coronation, a program of music and pantomime was presented in honor of the king and queen.

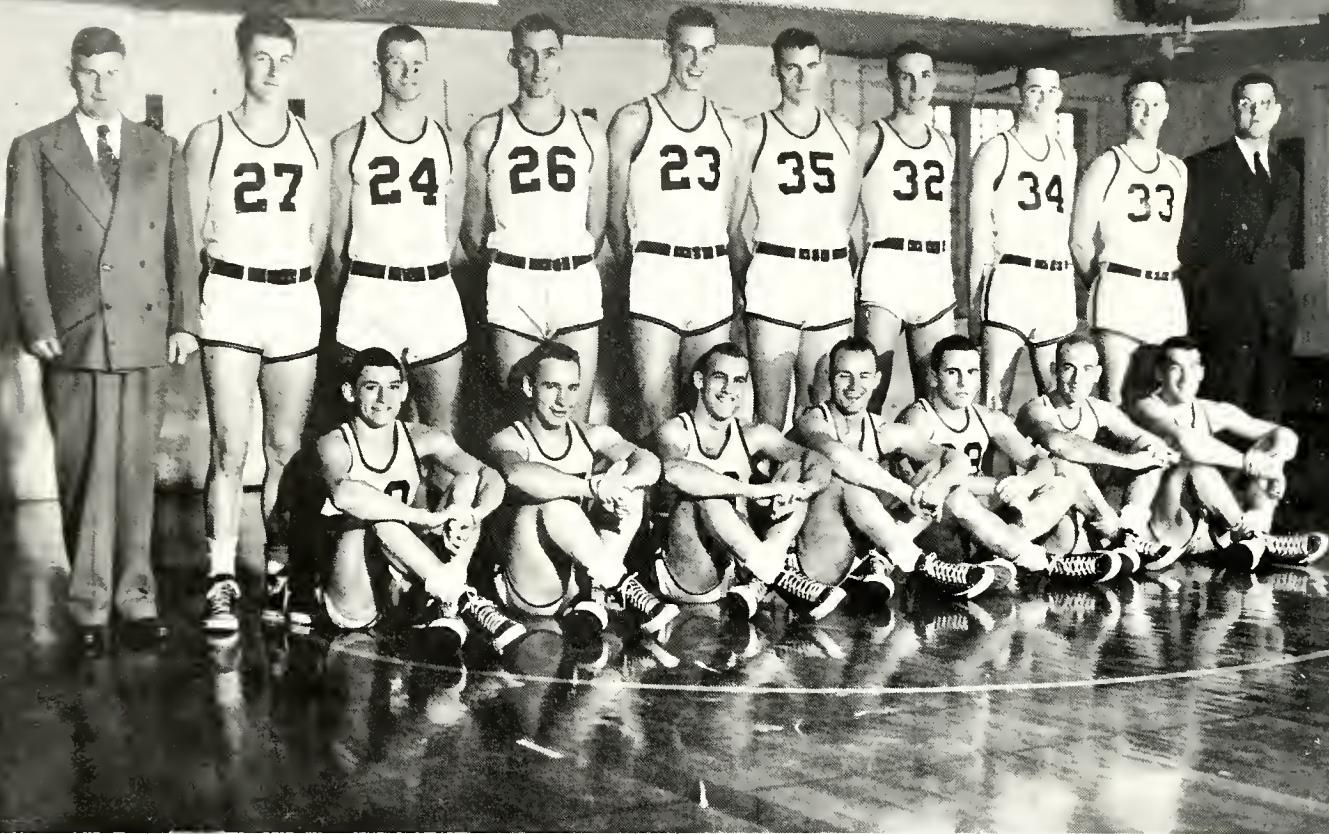

FACULTY CONCERT

On February 23rd, the Faculty entertained the student body with a concert sponsored by the Junior class. This concert was held in the Little Theatre and was thoroughly enjoyed by all. The faculty, talented and untalented, gave brilliant performances on various instruments with some help from behind the stage.

BULLDOGS ON THE HARDWOOD

Union College Bulldogs ended the regular 1950-51 basketball season with a record of 13 wins and 9 losses. The Bulldogs lost a 1 point verdict to Kentucky Wesleyan in the opening round of the K.I.A.C. tournament by a score of 71-70. In the first round of the S.M.A.C. the boys slipped by Tusculum 50-48 and then fell to Emory-Henry 75-70 but came back the next evening to capture third place honors by defeating the host team Lincoln Memorial 81-79.

Coach Bolyard loses only one man from the 1950-51 cage squad who is guard Woody Crum. Woody has been an outstanding performer on the basketball, baseball and track teams for the past four years and will be missed by everyone at Union College. Cliff Swim, Keith Hodgin, Bert Cox, Harold Cole, Shannon Sloan, Jack Bruner and the other Bulldogs should be back next year and if Coach Bolyard can keep these boys he will have the nucleus for one of the best teams in the Kentucky and Tennessee region.

SPRING Sports

As the STESPEAN goes to press, the spring sport program is just starting. A good number turned out for the three spring sports and even though they have had a late start due to extremely bad weather the track, baseball and tennis teams should surpass their records of last year.

UNION COLLEGE

Cheerleaders

Our cheerleaders have done a terrific job this year and all of us here at Union are really proud of them. Led by Bobbie Smith they practiced many hours and were really ready to go at every game. They bought their own uniforms and paid for their expenses to all of the games away just to let the boys know that we were all behind them. So to Bobbie, Jackie, Jerry, Phyllis, Perk and Chief we say thanks a million for a job well done.
